— Matthew 16:19

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD’S LOVE FOR ALL PEOPLE

Following their exile to Babylon, the people of Israel came home to find other banished people living in Israel. It was, therefore, not uncommon for foreigners to attempt to come to the Temple to worship. In the reading from Isaiah, the Jewish people are urged to welcome the foreigners and encourage their worship, for it was clearly the understanding of the author of Isaiah that everyone would be redeemed. The Jewish people had a strong sense of what was right and wrong and how to live just lives. This did not mean they had to embrace the religions of others, only to accept the people themselves and recognize that they and all people were entitled to God’s salvation.

Paul’s Epistle to the Romans is equally evangelizing. He states that his ministry and God’s love stretch out to all people, not just the Israelites. Frustrated at times with the Jewish people’s rejection and refusal to listen, Paul turned to the Gentiles. All people, Paul explains, have sinned against God. Only because of our disobedience can God show love and mercy for all people. God loves us, and without exclusion each human being can claim the gift of salvation.

SALVATION FOR ALL

More severe than the other readings, the Gospel nonetheless asserts that salvation is for all people. It is the amazing and intense faith of the Canaanite woman that catches our attention in the Gospel. The disciples saw her as a nuisance and someone to remove from Jesus’ presence. Jesus clearly considered his mission at this point particularly to the Israelites. Yet the woman knew that Jesus could heal her daughter and God’s healing is, indeed, for all of us. The woman was so sure of Jesus and God’s love that she recognized that something greater than crumbs would come someday to those outside the Jewish faith. Each of us in our own calling is challenged to multiply and supplement the crumbs generously, making a nourishing meal to show all people of the world God’s great love.

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

People come to the Church because God call them. Try volunteering in the parish ministry for people seeking to become Catholic (RCIA), or in a ministry welcoming Catholics who left the Church and want to come home.

ST. CHARLES BORROMEIO ACADEMY

Welcome back to our St. Charles Borromeo Students and to all new students who are joining us for the 2017-18 school year! The first day of classes begin Monday, August 21st. Our Student Council will kick off our first Academy Mass on Friday, August 25th, at 8:00am.

We invite all parents & parishioners to come join our students, teachers and staff as we ask God to bless the teachers and staff for their work, dedication and commitment to the education of our youth; the students to give them guidance and fortitude in their commitment to their education; and, finally, for the parents to have God help them in their commitment in guiding their children through their Catholic education journey at St. Charles Borromeo Academy.

Any questions on the upcoming St. Charles Borromeo Academy calendar of events, can be directed to the office at 619-223-8271.

Beginning Experience

Divorced, widowed, and separated persons can register now for a healing Beginning Experience Weekend retreat October 13-15, 2017. The weekend focuses on healing and moving beyond grief in a supportive and caring environment with others that are going through and have gone through the same experiences. The retreat will be held at the beautiful and serene Prince of Peace Abbey, in Oceanside, CA. If you know someone experiencing pain of grief and loss, Beginning Experience can help. For further information call Cathy Savel @ 619-222-9093 or Nish Carmedy (Spanish) @ 330-607-8774.

STEWARDSHIP COLLECTION
For August 13, 2017

The gifts of God that the angel brought to Elijah—food, water, rest, and encouragement—were given, not for his own good alone, but to strengthen him for service. How am I using my gifts to serve others?

Offering: $6,633.39
